

A GAME FOR BURLINGTON

Second Was Called Without a Score Being Made.

SOME FINE BASE BALL.

Burlington's Victory Over Rutland Was a Shutout, 2 to 0—Seven Innings in the Second Without a Score.

Rutland, Sept. 1.—Burlington took the first of a double-header with Rutland yesterday afternoon, and the second game was called at the end of the seventh inning with neither team having scored a run. The sport was witnessed by 1,000 people. Burlington improved "Jones" for the first game and "Jones" was a mauler, the home team getting but three hits, two of them by Kretschell. Donovan, formerly with Plattburgh, pitched for Rutland and was touched up for nine hits.

Burlington scored once in the first inning on a Texas leaguer by Dowd, a stolen base and a Texas leaguer by Hareton. The only other tally of the day came in the fifth inning, on Loughlin's single, Matthews' sacrifice and Robertson's wild throw to Shannon to catch Loughlin.

Rutland came near scoring in the sixth when Kretschell made one of his two hits, went to third on Donovan's hit and tried to score on Carroll's foul to Hazelton. Kretschell would have scored but for the fact that he left the base before the ball was caught by Hazelton.

The Second Game.
Wiggs and Doescher pitched fine ball for seven innings in the second game, the latter allowing but two hits and the former three.
At the opening the umpire announced that the game would be seven innings, and when that point was passed without scoring Burlington tried to play longer but Manager Callahan and Captain Duff stood by the umpire's announcement.

PICKING THE WINNER.
Views of Fight Prophets as to Merits of Britt and Nelson.

Pugilistic sharpshooters throughout the country are wrought up to a high pitch over the coming Britt-Nelson fight, and have not been able to resist the temptation to pick the winner. The Nelson prophets claim the Dane is a harder puncher and possesses more stamina. The adherents

Hood's Pills

After-dinner pill, purely vegetable, prompt and pleasant; easy to take and easy to operate. 25c.

Those who saw the two warriors in their previous battle declare that Britt was not entitled to the verdict, as only once during the entire session did he stand up and fight, preferring to back around the ring, avoiding his foe's attacks. Many who hold this view are inclined to believe that Nelson was slowly wearing Britt down, and would surely have handed him a ticket to dreamville in a few more rounds, all of which emphasizes that it will be a great fight, whichever wins.

BONUS FOR CHILDREN.

Gotham Cafe Proprietor Urges Matrimony to Employees.

New York, Sept. 1.—Not fear of race suicide, but strictly a business proposition, has led J. B. Martin, proprietor of the Cafe Martin, at West Twenty-sixth street and Fifth avenue, to offer $100 to any employee who gets married, and $50 at the birth of each child. Mr. Martin has been traveling in Europe, where he says the practice among employers of making such offers is common. He says that they do it because a married man is sure to be steadier and make all around better help than one who is not.

Mr. Martin has posted the following notice in his cafe:
"Any employee of the Cafe Martin who from this date shall get married will receive $100. Any employee who is married also will get $50 at the birth of each child, provided always that such employee shall have been in my service for a period of 12 months."
Mr. Martin has 400 men and women in his employ, and there are many whisperings already about the place of betrothals and weddings which are soon to be brought about.

CONSTRUCTION PROGRESSING.

New Buildings at Fort Ethan Allen Going Up Rapidly.

Burlington, Sept. 1.—Excellent progress is being made in constructing the numerous new buildings at the Military Post. The band barracks are ready for the lathers and plasterers, the addition to the hospital is being roofed and work is going on well on the administration building.

The trestle for the big water tank has been shipped from the factory at Pittsburg and will be erected as soon as it arrives. This big tower will be of steel and will have a capacity of 150,000 gallons, three times that of the present stone structure.
The territory for the addition to the drill grounds is fast being cleared and a large amount of cord wood is being gathered.

VERMONT CENTENARIAN DEAD.

John Dunton, 101, Dies of Shock Resulting from Accident.

Lyndonville, Sept. 1.—John Dunton, aged 101, died at his home here yesterday as the result of a shock caused by severe burns received from an accidental overturning of a lamp two days ago. Mr. Dunton was born in Townshend, Sept. 2, 1804, and was a farmer. He was tendered a reception by the citizens of Lyndonville on his hundredth anniversary. His wife died in 1873 and three of his seven children survive.

Aeronaut Blown to Pieces by Dynamite.

Greenville, Ohio, Sept. 1.—While Professor Baldwin, an aeronaut, was making an ascension at the fair grounds, yesterday, an explosion occurred and he was blown to pieces.

Why, Indeed?

"Well," said the passenger to the drummer in the smoking compartment, "I'm disappointed in you."
"How so?" queried the drummer.
"There's a perfect dream of a girl back in the car and here you are sitting in here and not even trying to get up a flirtation. Have you seen her?"
"Yes, she got on when I did."
"And you don't feel any inclination to make love to her?"
"Not a bit."
"Why not?"
"Why should I; she's my wife?"—Houston Post.

CRAWLING UP ON LEADERS

Pittsburg Won Double-Header Yesterday.

WHILE NEW YORKERS LOST

Pennant Winner Is Not by Any Means Sure In National League—Boston Americans Won Again Yesterday.

By winning both games of the double-header with St. Louis yesterday, the Pirates from Pittsburg took a long stride toward the National league pennant, while the leaders went down before Philadelphia, thus helping Pittsburg a step nearer. Only 61 points lie between the two, and in games won New York is only four to the good of the Pirates. The race for this pennant promises to be not so tame an affair as it was last year, and Pittsburg may yet even win out. Chicago still holds a secure position as third. It is likely that Ruelbach will break into the game today against Cincinnati for the first time since his 20-inning battle with Philadelphia.

The Champions of Boston and the Highlanders of New York are now tied for fourth place in the American league, the latter having continued their victorious work over St. Louis by a score of 3 to 2. New York was shut out, 5 to 0, by Detroit, and Washington got whitewashed, 2 to 0, from Chicago. Cleveland got the same dose from Philadelphia. The scores:

SUBPOENAS OUT.

Leading Insurance Officers of Five Companies Called.

New York, Sept. 1.—Subpoenas have been issued for the entire list of officers in five leading life insurance companies, summoning them to appear before the New York legislature insurance investigation committee at its opening session next Wednesday.

Among the well known men for whom subpoenas have been made out are: John A. McCall, George W. Perkins, Darwin P. Kingsley, Thomas A. Buckner, Gage E. Tarbell, George T. Wilson, H. R. Winthrop, Richard A. McCurdy, John R. Hegeman, Haley Fiske and Frederick A. Burnham.

Those actually served thus far are Messrs. McCall, Perkins, Kingsley, Tarbell and Wilson.
So far as is known no subpoenas have been issued for Senator Chauncey M. Depew or James Hazen Hyde. The latter is outside of the state, but his counsel is understood to have assured the investigators that he will come to New York for the purpose of receiving service of the papers should they be made out.

FREAKS OF LIGHTNING.

Widows Broken and Floor Torn Up in Chelsea House.

Chelsea, Sept. 1.—During a severe thunder storm Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. George H. Bacon, who live on West Hill, had a narrow escape from death by lightning. The electric current entered the house on the telephone wire, demolishing that instrument, breaking seven large panes of glass and several smaller ones, burning the curtains at two windows, and breaking a mirror which hung between them, and tearing up a piece of hardwood floor and the zinc under a stove. Mrs. Bacon was sitting within three feet of the place where the lightning entered the house and was out in the fact by pieces of flying glass, but otherwise was not injured.

Mr. Bacon, who was in an adjoining room at the time, felt the shock severely. The house was filled with smoke but did not take fire.

WHISKEY FOR TOOTHACHE.

Charles Bean Said He Took Too Much Remedy.

Burlington, Sept. 1.—Charles Bean was arraigned in city court yesterday on the charge of a first offense of intoxication. He is a Lincoln man, but has been working of late in this part of the country. He said he bought a pint of whiskey for the toothache but drank too much of the remedy. The cavity was probably smaller than he thought and overflowed. He was fined $5 and costs of $9.75 or 10 days in jail. He thinks he can pay as there is some money due him from a person at Queen City Park, and he will telephone for the rest.

CUTICURA GROWS HAIR

Scalp Cleared of Dandruff and Hair Restored by One Box of Cuticura and

ONE CAKE OF CUTICURA SOAP

A. W. Taft of Independence, Va., writing under date of Sept. 15, 1904, says: "I have had falling hair and dandruff for twelve years and could get nothing to help me. Finally I bought one box of Cuticura Ointment and one cake of Cuticura Soap, and they cleared my scalp of the dandruff and stopped the hair falling. Now my hair is growing as well as ever. I am highly pleased with Cuticura Soap as a toilet soap." (Signed) A. W. Taft, Independence, Va."

PRaises ROCKEFELLER AS LESSON TO THE WORLD

Cleveland Neighbor Prints Book of Eulogy, in Which He Praises Oil King to the Skies.

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 1.—Marcus M. Brown, president of the Mayfield Heights Realty company, and neighbor of John D. Rockefeller, has written a book entitled "Vindication of John D. Rockefeller." In it he says in part: "Mr. Rockefeller is a unique character. He stands absolutely alone. Here is a man like as to whom the annals of time are silent, yet what modesty, what wholesome public and private example, what kindness, what forbearance, long suffering and universal love he has. Not to speak of Christianity in particular, this country or even the world cannot afford to lose such an object lesson for good and the general elevation of mankind as this man affords."

"I believe that I cannot better serve my country than to compile a few simple testimonials of his neighbors who have known him and his general reputation from boyhood, because I believe in the worth of my soul that he is a good man."

Referring to Ida Tarbell and others, the book says:
"Inasmuch as moral greatness is more than intellectual greatness, inasmuch as it is more blessed to give than to receive, so the greatness of Mr. Rockefeller is greater than any of these."

SIMPLY A SALOON NOW.

"Subway Tavern" a Failure, and Business Is Transferred.

New York, Sept. 1.—At 11 o'clock yesterday morning, in one of the rear offices of the Bernheimer & Schwartz Brewing company at One Hundred and Twenty-eighth street and Amsterdam avenue, signatures were affixed to certain documents, and all men were invited to know "by these presents," that the Subway Tavern, as such, had ceased to exist.

In future the establishment at Bleeker and Mulberry streets will be merely an ordinary corner oasis, with a free lunch instead of Browning and Ruskin on the side. A professional "mixologist" will preside behind the bar, and the sign directing the way to the water wagon will come down. The new management intends rather to cater to those who, having traveled on the wagon and absorbed quantities of lemon phosphate, Buffalo punch and other highly nutritious beverages, have fallen off.

Joseph Johnson, Jr., the president of the Subway Tavern Company, which includes among its other stockholders R. Fulton Cutting, Herbert Parsons, Dr. E. R. L. Gould and others prominent in reform work, was at the brewery yesterday to make the transfer which places the premises in the hands of W. A. Skidmore.

"It is the intention of the directors of the company," said Mr. Johnson, "to issue a full statement showing why the experiment has failed. For it has failed. Of that there can be no doubt. A year's work has shown that beyond any question. The tavern was conducted exactly on the lines originally laid down, and it has not succeeded. Perhaps it has failed because it was conducted on these lines."

SOLDIER GETS A YEAR.

Heavy Sentence for Stealing a Pair of Shoes.

Burlington, Sept. 1.—One of the most severe sentences given a man at Fort Ethan Allen for a light offense was read to Private Charles Fournier, Troop K, 15th Cavalry, a resident of Bideford, Me. Fournier was recently tried by a general court-martial for larceny, on the charge of having stolen a pair of shoes valued at $2.05 from Private Johnson, of his troop.

The court found him guilty and sentenced him to one year's imprisonment at Governor's Island, New York, to which place the prisoner will be taken under guard.

Fournier was one of the finest soldiers in his troop and had been eighteen months in the service.

DOUBLES ORDER FOR CARS.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company to Place Contracts for 15,000.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 1.—Pennsylvania Railroad Company is arranging to place orders for fifteen thousand in place of eight thousand cars, as was stated earlier in the week, to cost about $15,000,000. Orders to be placed as follows: The Pressed Steel Car Company of Pittsburg, the Standard Steel Car Company of Butler, the American Car & Foundry Company of New York, the Cambria Steel Company of Pittsburg. Allotments will be divided among them at once.

I Had Stone in the Bladder, and my kidneys were affected. None of the means taken for relief produced any lasting benefit until I began the use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, of Rondout, N. Y. The pain ceased—the calculus or stone having been dissolved by the medicine. I am ready to testify that my recovery was due to Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.—E. D. W. Parsons, Rochester, N. Y.

WRIGHT IS TITLE HOLDER

Defeats Ward For the Tennis Championship.

PLAYED WITH BRILLIANCY

Third Set Was a Most Stubborn Struggle—Great Gallery Turned Out for the Challenge Match.

Newport, R. I., Sept. 1.—Beals C. Wright of Boston, in one of the finest exhibitions of tennis ever witnessed on the Casino courts for several years, won the national championship yesterday, defeating the former holder, Holcombe Ward of Orange, N. J., in straight sets, 6-1, 8-2, 11-9.

During the first two sets the contest seemed almost a runaway affair for Wright, as Ward's errors were many and glaring.
For five games in the third set this sort of play continued. Suddenly there came a most brilliant rally.

With the match within two points of going to Wright, Ward tied the score and it required ten games more before the Boston man finally won.
